A new logo for IIM-Visakhapatnam was unveiled by HRD Minister Ganta Srinivasa Rao at the Institute premises on Sunday.

Speaking at the occasion, Ganta said that IIM occupies a special place in AP for three reasons such as- It is located in the "City of Destiny" which is ideal for a business school, which was developed within a short span, world-class infrastructure and is imparting top-quality management education to students from 20 states across the country.

The HRD minister said that IIM-Visakhapatnam has emerged as a popular source in the country for good talent right from its first batch, attracting several reputed companies which are making impressive placement offers. He also expressed his happiness that a few graduates are working with the AP government and contributing to the socio-economic progress of the state.

The minister emphasised that IIM has an important ambience and aesthetics of global standards.

Our goal should be to make the campus a legendary landmark, he remarked.

Director of the Institute stated how fortunate IIM was to be in a city like Vizag which offers an ecosystem conducive to innovation, industry and entrepreneurship, for management education to progress.

It is also laudable that AP is a leading State in the country, through its professional and pragmatic approach.
