Prof. M. Chandrasekhar took charge as the first Director of Indian Institute of Management-Visakhapatnam (IIM-V) on Wednesday. Earlier, he was with the Administrative Staff College of India (ASCI) Hyderabad as a professor from April 2002.

Prof. Chandrasekhar said he will give his best to make a name for the IIM-V with the support of faculty and staff.

"With a heightened focus on integrated learning, innovative curriculum and imaginative pedagogy aimed at expanding the horizons, the IIM-V will be an institution with a difference," he said.
