THE maiden annual fest 'Samaarambh' of the IIM Visakhapatnam, was a day with a difference for all the university and college students in the city to enjoy music, dance, drama, comedy and different fun activities. Some were seen taking part in the competitions and some others cheerleaders.

The event was an extravaganza for the students which were not only from the city colleges and university but also from other districts of the state and neighbouring states.

"We received over 300 footfalls. The event started with 'Raaga', a musical event, where students from various colleges and Bhubaneswar participated and PVLN Murty from Adarsh College of Engineering, Chebrolu, was declared the winner and won ₹7,000 and the runner-up got ₹4,000," said Aditya Velichety, the cultural secretary and member of Student Affairs Council, the IIM Visakhapatnam.

The fest had plethora of performances by the college students who showcased their skills in dance and drama. It also had online photography competition 'Lenspost' which was running on the facebook page from January 2 to 20, where students from various universities across the country participated and Abhishek Goel from the city IIM was chosen as a winner with maximum likes, shares and comments.

Besides, students from GITAM University performed mime act and IIM students performed Life-house Skit and Baba Institute of Technology and Sciences students performed flash mob.
