

First IIM-V director takes charge

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
VISAKHAPATNAM

Prof. M Chandrasekhar has taken charge as director of IIM Visakhapatnam on Wednesday. Prior to joining as the first director of IIM-V, he was with the Administrative Staff College of India (ASCI) Hyderabad as a full-time professor from April 2002 to March 2017.

Prof. Chandrasekhar said

“with heightened focus on integrated learning, innovative curriculum, imaginative pedagogy, internationalisation and industry-interface aimed at expanding the horizons, enriching the competencies and enhancing the capacities of its students, IIM-V will be an institution with a difference”.

Prof. Chandrasekhar is an engineer and management professional by training. Indian Institute of Technology at Delhi and Bombay are among his alma maters.

Prof. Chandrasekhar has held many academic and administrative positions such as Director of the Centre for Public Policy, Governance & Performance; Director-in-charge of the Centre for Poverty Studies & Rural Development and Director of the Centre for Innovation & Technology.