IIM-V to train biz women for a year

Visakhapatnam: About 62 aspiring women entrepreneurs are undergoing training, as part of Women Start-Up Program 2018, at the Indian Institute of Management-Visakhapatnam (IIM-V). The institute has rolled out the initiative under the aegis of IIM-Bangalore, its mentor institute. About 1,500 of the participants, among the 6,000 women who have registered from across India, belongs to AP and Telangana.

About 70 women have been shortlisted through screening tests. The final round of screening, slated to be held on April 7 and 8. A batch of 25 women entrepreneurs will qualify as incubatees. TNN
